Brig. Gen. Gorby Speaks At Exercises Closing Firemen's Most Successful Celebration

The Gettysburg Fire Department's most successful observance of the anniversary of The Battle of Gettysburg, its Fourth of July celebration and its annual festival were brought to a brilliant conclusion Sunday evening at the high school athletic field with an address by Brig. Gen. Alvin L. Gorby, surgeon general of the U. S. Second Army, Ft. Meade, Md., and the thrilling music and field performance of the U. S. Air Force Drum and Bugle Corps.

A crowd estimated at 1,500 persons filled the bleachers on the north side of the field and many more stood during the program as America's "most versatile musical organization" brought round after round of spontaneous applause and cheers for their concert, glee club numbers, bagpipe band and field drills.

Guests Introduces

Burgess William G. Weaver, who is also president of the fire company, was master of ceremonies. The program opened at 7 o'clock with an introductory number by the drum corps, followed by the invocation by the Rev. Harold V. March, pastor of the EUB Church. Then followed several concert numbers and the introduction of guests, which included Major Gen. John Weikert of McKnightstown; Congressman James F. Lind, York; Judge W. C. Sheely of the Adams County courts; Capt. C. B. Spicer Jr., grand marshal of the July 4th parade; Fire Chief Donald G. Jacobs, First Assistant Chief Donald W. McSherry, and Second Assistant Chief Donald E. Staub.

"The real answer as to whether we have war or peace lies not in the Communist theory of force," General Gorby declared in his address. "If we make ourselves and our allies so strong spiritually and physically that to wage war on us would be suicide, then the Kremlin will choose peace."

"Today in a period of grave tension we turn again to our historic past for inspiration. Eighty-nine years ago two events of world importance took place here, a battle which was one of the most decisive in world history and the immortal address by President Lincoln."

No Price Too High

"Today, as the Communists do everything possible to confuse us, by fortifying ourselves with those things of our glorious past we fortify ourselves against their insidious ideologies. It is an inspiration just to put foot on this hallowed ground. At Gettysburg two armies battled over a principle, not for a king, a dictator, a totalitarian state or for more territory. They fought to decide an issue. Fair play prevailed governed by civilized rules of warfare."

"The issue was decided that the rule of the elected majority prevails."

"Freedom is always in danger unless we defend it zealously. It is worth fighting for; we in this country know what it is. In many countries the people do not. No price is too high to pay for the preservation of our freedom. One half of the world is already enslaved and the domination of the entire world is the objective of the Kremlin."

Lauds Town's Hospitality

"The Kremlin cannot reach out for more without bringing on World War III. We cannot, because of the nature of our position, strike first, therefore it makes the potential aggressor the deciding factor of war or peace. We must be prepared to retaliate should the aggressor strike, so that victory will be ours. It is our earnest hope that our might will keep the aggressor from declaring war."

"We here reaffirm that determination that freedom shall not perish from the earth."

Captain H. J. Gall, officer in charge of the Air Force Drum and Bugle Corps which came here Friday for the Fourth of July parade and remained for Sunday evening's concert and exhibition, said that "never has the drum corps received finer treatment than in Gettysburg." He praised particularly the Eagles, Moose and Elks, who provided the meals for the organization during their three-day stay.

Three Injured In York Springs Crash

Three persons were injured, none seriously, in York Springs at 10:25 o'clock Saturday night when an automobile operated by Francis D. Scott, 16, Gardner R. 1, struck the automobile of May J. Sowers, 57, of Lebanon, as the latter was backing from a private driveway into N. Main St., according to state police of the Gettysburg substation.

Scott suffered minor lacerations of the scalp; Mrs. Sowers bruised hands, multiple lacerations of the hands and arms and puncture wound of the left leg. Mrs. Charles King, 50, of York Springs R. 1, a passenger in the Sowers car, suffered a minor laceration of the left side of her face and numerous bruises.

After striking the Sowers automobile, Scott lost control of his car, police said and struck a house owned by C. F. Brinkerhoff. Damage to the house was estimated at $600. Damage to the two automobiles was placed at $150 each.

PAYS $10 FINE

Lester D. Brady, McSherrytown, charged with reckless driving by state police of the Gettysburg substation after his automobile had run off the highway on the Emmitsburg Rd. July 4, paid a fine of $10 and costs today to Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore.

HUBCAPS STOLEN

Ned Buoh, Chambersburg St., reported to borough police Sunday that someone had stolen four hubcaps from his automobile while it was parked in the alley at the rear of his home.

5 JET PLANES SWEEP ACROSS TOWN SATURDAY

Jet planes roared 1,000 feet over Gettysburg Saturday afternoon as part of the day's program for the observance of the 89th anniversary of The Battle of Gettysburg.

Fireworks filled the air with noise and brilliant displays at the Recreation Park as the annual Gettysburg Fireman's Festival drew near its close.

These awards were announced Saturday night by fire department officials.

Award Winners Listed

Deep freeze unit, won by Mrs. J. J. Buchanan, 14 W. Fourth St., Weston, W. Va.

Electric refrigerator, won by Sanford Neary, Gettysburg R. 1. Television set, won by Robert Shealer, E. Middle St.

The seven mixmasters given award Saturday night by the firemen were awarded to the following: Esta Swisher, Gettysburg R. 3; Jimmy Cole, 51 E. Stevens St.; June Sanders, Gettysburg; Vincent Sanders, 340 Baltimore St.; Bill Anders, Gettysburg R. 1; number 12988, no name; Denny Ruby, Chambersburg.

Made Five "Passes"

The five jet planes, known as "F 94B" Starfires, all weather interceptors, from the 121st Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Andrews Air Force Base, Washington, D. C., made five "passes" over Gettysburg and the Recreation park between 2:30 and 3 o'clock.

The Starfires were flown by Capt. William F. Smith, Silver Spring, Md.; Capt. David Munn, Washington, D. C.; 1st Lt. Robert A. Maxwell, Indianapolis, Ind.; 1st Lt. Norman H. Todd, Washington, D. C. and 1st Lt. Stanislaw Ligonier, Pa.

Those in charge of the firemen's celebration and festival said it was the most successful, in point of attendance and financially, of any festival ever held by this organization. No reports were available yet, however, on the amount of money raised for the department's equipment fund.

Adams County's three delegates to the Junior Red Cross JRC Leadership Training Center at Hood College, Frederick, returned Sunday with Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington, the county chapter's executive secretary. The training center at Hood was one of nine leadership training centers conducted by the American Junior Red Cross this summer.

The county delegates were Naomi Shafer, Gardner R. 2; Kenneth Benedict, New Oxford R. 1, and Alvina Grotz, Littlestown R. 1. They were among the 165 teen-age and 25 adult delegates at the center. They received intensive training in many phases of the Red Cross program.

The county delegates will give brief reports at the meeting of the directors of the Adams County Red Cross chapter Tuesday evening, June 15, at the Gettysburg Country Club.

DIES 3 YEARS AFTER HUSBAND

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Baumgardner, 44, Ashland, O., widow of Clyde W. Baumgardner, died Sunday evening at 7:15 o'clock at the Warner Hospital from a complication of diseases.

She had been spending a vacation with her daughter, Mrs. Eileen Rusinko, New Oxford, and became ill. After returning to Ashland for a checkup she returned to the home of her daughter and upon becoming seriously ill was admitted to the hospital Sunday at 4 p.m.

Mrs. Baumgardner was born in Alliance, O., a daughter of John Warner, Jeromesville, O., and the late Mary Warner. The Baumgardners moved to Biglerville in 1938 and operated Baumgardners Restaurant from 1944 to 1946. Her death occurred exactly three years after that of her husband. Mrs. Baumgardner was a member of Bender's Lutheran Church. She had been employed by the Stone Container Corp., Mansfield, O.

In addition to her father she is survived by three children, Clyde Jr., 233 W. Middle St.; Beatrice Ann, Ashland, O.; and Mrs. Rusinko, New Oxford; three grandchildren; two brothers, Jack Warner, Norwalk, O., and Martin Warner, Ashland, O. Funeral services Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Dugan Funeral Home, Benderville, conducted by her pastor, the Rev. H. W. Sternat. Interment in the Biglerville Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening after 7 o'clock.

CLUB DIRECTORS TO MEET

The board of directors of the Gettysburg Country Club will meet Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock at the professional's shop at the club to reorganize for the coming year. The meeting has been called by Vice President Henry T. Bream.

Musselman Paying 7 Cents For Cherries

With the cherry picking season moving into high gear this week, the C. H. Musselman Co., Biglerville, today announced a price of seven cents per pound for U. S. No. 1 Montmorency sour cherries delivered at Biglerville and 6 1/2 cents delivered at Inwood, W. Va.

Musselman Co. officials said the price was above the average paid in Michigan and New York, the other large producing areas for the fruit. Special buses were being operated by the company this week to its various orchards, for the hundreds of pickers needed to harvest the fruit. In Biglerville the plant was completing plans for addition of a second shift to help process the cherries.

PLAN ONE-HOUR CANCER DRIVE TO REACH GOAL

Plans for a one-hour, county-wide "Lights-On" drive to complete 1952 fund raising for the Adams County unit of the American Cancer Society were announced today by Attorney Richard A. Brown, unit president. The drive will be conducted Wednesday evening, July 16, from 8 to 9 o'clock, in all parts of the county by volunteer workers in an effort to push Adams County "over the top" of its $3,000 goal for the work of the Cancer Society.

"In the 'Lights On' campaign," Mr. Brown explained, "each person wishing to make a donation to further the work of cancer control is asked to turn on a light either on the porch or in the front of their house or apartment at 8 o'clock on July 16, and a volunteer will then call to collect the contribution. At the same time the worker will leave a cancer educational leaflet at the home. While this gives everyone the opportunity to support the life-saving work of the American Cancer Society, it will not impose on those who are otherwise inclined."

Total Now $1,700

The Adams County Unit of the ACS already has raised approximately $1,700. Mr. Brown said, "but in order to maintain and expand our services to cancer patients it will be necessary to reach and exceed."

BULLETINS

CONVENTION HALL, Chicago (AP)—Republicans whooped into this big arena to open their presidential nominating convention today with Taft and Eisenhower forces drawing lines for a bitter floor battle over voting by contesting delegates. All compromise efforts were fast collapsing.

CHICAGO (AP)—Pennsylvania's crucial delegation, in the first direct test of sentiment, voted today to cast 57 votes in support of the Eisenhower-backed move to amend the rules of the Republican convention on delegate credentials. Only 11 delegates lined up against the proposal.

The vote of a tense 90-minute caucus was even more one-sided than had been predicted by Gov. John S. Fine who personally led the fight to get the delegation on record on what he called a highly important moral issue.

CHICAGO (AP)—General Dwight D. Eisenhower said today he would not hard at Democratic "errors" if he is the Republican presidential nominee, but would not "scrape up dirt" just for the sake of doing it. Eisenhower made the statement to the Florida delegation to the Republican National Convention as he launched an all-or-nothing offensive to win top place on the GOP ticket.

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft told a news conference today he would fight a proposed rule change sought by Eisenhower forces in the Republican National Convention. He said he wouldn't try to defer the issue.

Taft laid new claim to front run-

TWO CHICKEN THIEVES GIVEN TERMS IN PEN

Judge W. C. Sheely this morning gave evidence once again that chicken stealing is a serious crime in Adams County.

Two defendants, Donald Paul Carbaugh and Cecil Robert Carbaugh, both of Iron Springs, were sentenced to the Eastern Penitentiary for stealing 125 chickens from a neighbor's farm.

Before imposing sentence Judge Sheely observed: "The Adams County court has tried to make clear in the past that chicken stealing is not very profitable in Adams County. You two have moved here very recently from Franklin County, and you may not have known what happened in the past. But the same idea is being continued."

Young Burglars Sentenced

Donald Paul Carbaugh was sentenced to pay a $5 fine and sent to the Eastern Penitentiary for from two to four years and ordered to pay the costs. Cecil Herbert Carbaugh was sentenced to pay a $5 fine and to serve from 2 1/2 to 5 years in the Eastern Penitentiary and pay the costs. Both sentences will date from June 24, the date of their original incarceration. Cecil Herbert Carbaugh was also sentenced to 18 months, to run concurrently with the other sentence on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile, based upon the fact that he took his 14-year-old daughter along on the trip for the chickens.

Three youths were sentenced to jail on charges of burglary and larceny brought as a result of burglaries of stores and service stations. Earl Levere Wolf, McSherrytown, and Rodger David Huff, Hanover R. 3, were sentenced to from 30 days to 18 months each in the county jail. James Harvey Smiley, Gettysburg R. 5, was sentenced to from 60 days to 18 months in the county jail. Judge Sheely told the youths

First Edition Out Of 'Spirit Of Gettysburg'

The first edition of "The Spirit Of Gettysburg," a four-page "newspaper" replete with interesting facts relative to the Battle of Gettysburg and where to go and what to see here, has been issued under the sponsorship of the Plaza Restaurant, and Bookmart Stationers.

N. A. Meligakes, who is proprietor of both the Plaza and Bookmart, and president of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce said that the miniature edition is intended as a welcome as well as a guide to tourists. It commemorates the 89th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and is dedicated "To those who are visiting one of the largest and most beautiful historical shrines in America."

The publication is to be distributed free through various business places in Gettysburg. "It is a medium by which we endeavor to keep alive the interest of all citizens in Gettysburg," it says. The annual "Spirit of Gettysburg" will contain new features in future editions. It contains articles on the battlefield, including the soldiers' monument, the Peace Light, and a story of the Battle Flags, as well as notes on various publications on Gettysburg and a full page map of the town and the battle lines.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Informed officials indicated today the United States would not cut off military and economic aid to Denmark despite reports that the Danes have turned over to Russia a 13,000-ton tanker.

But Sen. O'Connor (D-Md) said he is urging the State Department to tell the Danes "in no uncertain terms . . . that they cannot supply bitter enemies with products to be used against us and at the same time expect to be the beneficiary of United States aid."

Nearly 16,000 Here On Week-end Holiday

Nearly 16,000 tourists visited the Gettysburg Battlefield over the July 4 week end, the National Park reported today.

Saturday, July 5, was marked by the largest visitation of the three day week end. Of the total of 15,731 tourists here on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, 5,503 were present on Saturday. Visitation on that date included 5,376 in cars and 127 in four buses.

A total of 5,074 visitors were here on the Fourth. Sunday visitation totaled 5,154, of which 148 were in five buses.

Forty-two states and the District of Columbia were represented among the guests at the National Museum over the Fourth of July week end. Nations represented were Turkey, Denmark, Canada, Holland, France, Brazil, the Philippines and the Netherlands. Among the visitors was General Navarre of France; Capt. Jergus Gottlieb, Denmark; Capt. Yasar-Ozam and Capt. M. Bulak, both from Turkey; and Col. Salvador T. Villa and Col. Ruiz Castro, both from the Philippines.

TO ADDRESS RALLY

Harold Blatt, a student at the Eastern Baptist Seminary, Philadelphia, will be the guest speaker at the Adams County Youth for Christ rally to be held this Saturday at the Memorial EUB Church, W. High St., at 8 o'clock in the evening.

KING AND QUEEN OF KIDDIES ARE NAMED; PRIZES

Steven Fidler was named King and Susan Welshone was elected Queen of the baby contest held Saturday afternoon by the Beta Sigma Phi sorority at the Gettysburg Recreation Park. Jerry Keckler and Deborah White were chosen prince and princess. About 50 children participated in the contest during which three members of the Hanover sorority named prize winners. Miss Mary Heintzelman, York St., was chairman of the affair which was the second annual baby contest sponsored by the local organization.

Mother Of Nine Killed In Headon Crash Sunday Night On Mt. Newman; 9 Injured

One person was killed and nine other persons injured in a head-on crash of two automobiles near the crest of Mt. Newman, at the intersection of the Lincoln Highway and the Buchanan Valley Rd., at 10:50 o'clock Sunday night, bringing to two the number of holiday week-end fatalities in Adams County.

Mrs. Rae Weaver, 49, wife of Stanford W. Weaver, of Biglerville R. 1, died in the Chambersburg ambulance enroute to the Chambersburg Hospital.

State police of the Gettysburg substation said she suffered a broken neck, shock, lacerated right knee and laceration and contusion above the left eye.

Five Children Hurt

The injured included five of Mrs. Weaver's children, her daughter-in-law and the latter's brother. They were:

Thomas B. Weaver, 20, Biglerville R. 1, driver of one of the cars, and son of the dead woman, contusions and abrasions of the left elbow.

Mrs. Betty Weaver, 19, wife of the driver, fractured nose, lacerations of both elbows and fractured left foot.

Dale Weaver, 8, contusions and abrasions of the right leg.

Addie Weaver, 12, contusions and abrasions of the lower right leg and possible fracture of the leg.

Peter Weaver, 14, contusions and possible fracture of the left leg and contusions and lacerations of the left eye.

Robert Bartek, 15, Carnegie, Pa., contusions and abrasions of the right leg.

Other Drivers Hurt

The two others injured were the driver and a passenger in the second car, David J. Jones, 32, of 129 Federal St., Chambersburg, who suffered five fractured right ribs and a compressed chest injury, state police said, and Pauline Brown, 27, of Chambersburg R. 4, multiple lacerations of the face.

All of the injured were taken to the Chambersburg Hospital, police said.

Enroute Home From Movie

The Weavers were driving east on the Lincoln Highway enroute home after attending the movies at the Caledonia Drive-In theater. The driver, Thomas Weaver, had stopped in the center lane of the three-lane highway at the intersection to make a left turn into the Buchanan Valley Rd., police said.

Jones, a Chambersburg truck driver, was enroute to Chambersburg from Gettysburg, and was traveling in the center lane as he came over the crest of the hill, police said.

Both automobiles were badly damaged. Damage to the Jones car was estimated at $1,400 and to (Please Turn to Page 2)

OVER 600 DIED
IN LONG HOLIDAY
WEEK END IN U. S.

By The Associated Press
More than 600 Americans died violent deaths over the three-day Independence Day week end.
The toll was far from a record for a holiday week end.
Traffic accidents took 346 lives—far short of the 430 the National Safety Council had predicted and 17 less than the number who died on the highways during a similar 78-hour Memorial Day period.

185 Drownings
But 185 drownings between 6 p. m. (local time) Thursday and midnight Sunday helped boost the total well beyond the Memorial Day figure of 510. There were 85 such deaths during the holiday week end five weeks ago.
Deaths from miscellaneous accidents amounted to 69 in the week end just past.
National Safety Council statistics for 1952 show that motor vehicle accidents have killed about 90 persons every 24 hours.
Fourth of July fireworks was blamed for only two deaths.
California had the greatest death toll with a total of 48 fatalities, 29 of them from traffic. Michigan was second with 37. New Hampshire had the smallest total—one traffic death.

NEW ATLANTIC
RECORD IS SET

ABOARD THE SS UNITED STATES (P)—The sleek new super liner United States completed her maiden Atlantic crossing today in a record three days, 10 hours and 50 minutes, copping the transatlantic speed ribbon for America for the first time in 83 years.
The time was 10 hours and two minutes faster than the old record set 14 years ago by the British Cunard liner Queen Mary.
The United States raced past the finish line—Bishop's Rock off the English Coast—at dawn as a gale of 60-knot winds whipped her. The ship's band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner" and her 1,700 passengers capped their champagne-at-sunrise celebration with a roaring cheer. The wind and rain kept most of them off the open decks, however.
The 53,000-ton United States averaged 35.59 knots—about 41 land miles per hour—on the 2,938-mile crossing from Ambrose Light outside New York. The Queen Mary had averaged 31.69 knots on her record trip.
Among the excited passengers this morning was Margaret Truman, who stood on the captain's bridge.

Prominent Chinese
Guests Of Wagners

Dr. T. Z. Koo, head of the Department of Oriental Studies at the University of Iowa, Mrs. Koo, and their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Lew, and daughter, Irene, of State College, Pa., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Milton Wagner, Fairfield Rd.
Dr. Koo was formerly secretary of the World's Christian Student Foundation; secretary of the World's YMCA, and head of the Chinese delegation to the League of Nations, narcotics control section.
Mr. Wagner, who, with his wife, spent more than ten years in China, where they met and were married, was associated with Dr. Koo in the Wuchang YMCA when Dr. Koo was secretary of the student section of the National Committee of the YMCA in China.
Dr. Lew is associate professor of aeronautical engineering at Penn State.
Mr. and Mrs. Wagner expect to go to Japan early next year as representatives of the American Friends Service Committee.

HARRISBURG (P)—Pennsylvania's manganese deposits are so meagre that it will likely be a long time before they're commercially profitable, State Geologist R. C. Stephenson said today.

Stephenson said there are only three known manganese deposits in the commonwealth and all can yield only low-grade ore.
"It would appear, however, that one of these days we are going to find a means of utilizing low-grade ore, but it's doubtful if we'll ever have enough to meet our full needs,"

Stephenson was asked to comment on a report from Lewisburg last week that manganese ore in Central Pennsylvania is now being assayed by U. S. Steel for possible development.

Stephenson said the only three known deposits of manganese in the state are located in Sherman Valley, Bedford County, the so-called "Reading Banks" and "White Rocks," both near Boiling Springs in Cumberland County.

FIVE ALL-STAR PITCHERS ARE BEATEN SUNDAY

By RALPH RODEN
AP Sports Writer

It looks like the pitchers are in for a tough time in the major league's 19th all-star game at Philadelphia tomorrow.

Five of the 12 pitchers on the dream squads saw action yesterday in the final tuneup for the mid-summer classic and all were second place from Cleveland, edged by the Yankees, on the other hand, came through with flying colors.

The American League suffered the biggest blow when Bobby Shantz, the scale-model lefthander of the Philadelphia Athletics, was forced to retire after four innings because of a muscle pain across his chest in the first game of a doubleheader against the pace-setting New York Yankees.

Lemon May Start
Shantz, the major's top winner with 14, was counted on to start against the National but it appears now that Cleveland's Bob Lemon may draw the assignment.

The Yanks clipped Shantz for four runs during his stay and went on to defeat the A's, 5-2. All-stars Gil McDougald and Mickey Mantle led the Yank drive with home runs.

Philadelphia bounced back to win the second game, 7-6, scoring the winning run with two out in the ninth inning when Ferris Fain doubled home his all-star teammate Eddie Joost from first base.

Chisox Second Now
The Chicago White Sox took over second place from Cleveland, edging the Indians, 3-2, in 13-innings on All-Star Minnie Minoso's homer. The Washington Senators clung to fourth place, beating the fifth-place Boston Red Sox, 5-2.

The torrid third-place St. Louis Cardinals ran their winning streak to nine games by sweeping a pair of games from Pittsburgh, 6-5 and 6-4.

Satchel Paige, expected to work in relief against the Nationals if the situation arises, was the loser as Detroit bowed to the Browns, 8-6. The Tigers hopped on the St. Louis star for four runs in the seventh inning to give Hal Newhouser his third victory.

Priddy Breaks Leg
Jerry Priddy doubled home two runs but he suffered a broken right leg sliding home with the fourth and will be lost for the rest of the season.

The Dodgers blasted Warren Spahn, for five runs in four innings, and an 8-2 win. Gil Hodges, the National's All-Star first baseman, sewed up Brooklyn's 13th victory over Boston with a three-run homer in the eighth.

Max Lanier of the Giants turned in his first complete game of the season in besting Philadelphia's Robin Roberts, who was expected to start for the National League tomorrow, 2-0.

Russ Meyer stopped the Giants 4-1 on three hits including a home run by all-star shortstop Al Dark, in the second game. Sal Maglie, one of the National's aces, suffered the first defeat of his career at the hands of the Phils after nine victories.

ROLFE FIRED; HUTCHINSON IN

DETROIT (P)—Fred Hutchinson waited only 20 hours after taking over as Detroit Tiger manager to say that he may shelve all pitching duties and concentrate on guiding his team out of last place.

The 32-year-old righthander, who hurled in last year's All-Star game, said he didn't plan to give himself any starting assignments in the near future.

And he said he didn't plan to put himself in the bullpen with the other relief hurlers. "Can't be out there and manage," were his words.

The scrapping, curly-headed favorite of Michigan fans had been a relief pitcher this season under Manager Red Rolfe, who was fired at 6 p. m. Saturday. Hutch never had a losing record in six previous seasons as a starter.

It's likely Hutch will stay on the active list. He's a terrific competitor and a fair hitter. He may use himself as a pinch-hitter and a possible starting pitcher should his hurling staff collapse.

MIDDLECOFF IS DETROIT WINNER

DETROIT (P)—The younger generation hope of winning the $15,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament here lay buried today in a first-hole sand trap at Red Run Golf Club.

For three straight days there had been a question as to whether rookies could beat off the ever-present challenge of some of the old line pros.

The answer to that question came on the fourth and final day, Sunday, and it was "no." Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist, who has been filling cavities in his bankroll for years on the tournament circuit, walked off with the $2,400 top prize.

But he had to do it the hard way. Ted Kroll, one of the more promising rookies on the circuit, played him to a standstill in the regulation 72 holes only to lose to Middlecoff in a sudden death playoff.

Each shot a 14-under-par 274 over the par 72 course, Middlecoff with rounds of 69-67-67-71 and Kroll with 68-68-71-70.

Heat May Help To Decide Fight Tonight
PHILADELPHIA (P)—Steaming heat may put the premium on stamina tonight in the welterweight bout between Champion Kid Gavilan of Havana and Gil Turner, the 21-year-old challenger from Philadelphia.

Will the 26-year-old keed from the Cuban canebrakes wilt under the fury of Gil's swarming attack? Can Turner carry his pace over the 15-round route against Gavilan, the indestructible man?

These are the questions to be answered in the vast Municipal Stadium where 40,000 fans are expected to pay $300,000 to see the latest home town sensation bid for a world's title at 9:00 p. m. (EST).

OLYMPIC TEAM OFF TO HELSINKI

NEW YORK (P)—The United States Olympic team — some 340 athletes — begins its trek to Helsinki today.

The first group, comprising mostly officials along with the soccer and basketball teams, leaves by plane at 3 p. m. for the big games, scheduled to run from July 19 to Aug. 4.

Two more plane loads, including the top track squad that's expected to clean up in Europe, are scheduled to leave tonight, while another group will leave Wednesday and a third batch Thursday.

The water polo and swimming teams, the last selected — the swimming tryouts ended only yesterday — will be the last to go.

The perennial problem of money apparently has been solved to the satisfaction of all concerned and there is no chance of any of the athletes being left behind or any teams being trimmed because of financial difficulties.

Interstate
By The Associated Press
It's a matter of the rich getting richer and the poor getting poorer in the Class B Interstate Baseball League these days.

The front-running Hagerstown Braves, now four and one-half games ahead of second-place Wilmington, have won their last five in a row and seven of their last eight. Cellar-dwelling Harrisburg's record for the past week is just the reverse.

Hagerstown, aiming for its second straight pennant, had to go 10 innings yesterday before a dropped pop fly gave the Braves a 4-3 win over Lancaster.

Harrisburg's Tex Berresford, who pitched the league's only no-hitter this season, was able to hold Wilmington's Blue Rocks scoreless in all but one inning. That still wasn't enough. Wilmington won 3-1.

Sixth-place York made it two in a row over third-place Allentown with a 7-6 victory. A fifth inning two-run single by Joe Blake gave the Salisbury Reds a 2-0 win over Sunday.

Eastern League

By The Associated Press
Billy Smith's hefty bat—accounting for 11 runs in a doubleheader—has lifted the Hartford Chiefs into a tie for fifth place, the loftiest spot they've enjoyed since the Eastern League race began.

The Chiefs, who have dawdled in seventh place half the season, whaled the leading Albany Senators yesterday, 14-10 and 8-5. The Braves' farmhands made their big jump while Scranton lost a doubleheader to Reading, 9-0 and 6-5, and fifth-place Elmira dropped a pair to Williamsport, 7-1 and 11-7.

The Binghamton Triplets, meanwhile, crowded into third place by beating Schenectady twice, 4-1 and 1-0, shoving the blue jays into fourth spot eight games off the pace.

Cheetah Runs Wild; Town Will Pass Law
GENEVA, Switzerland (P)—There is no law in Geneva against permitting wild animals to roam the streets.

The city fathers discovered this loophole recently then they tried to prosecute a woman psychiatrist whose 10-month-old cheetah caused a panic in the principal market place recently.

His owner had been taking him to market at the end of a leash. One official said that law will be amended immediately.

Seeking Oil In Jural Mountains
BERN, Switzerland (P)—The Swiss federal government has warned cantonal authorities that they must grant no oil concessions to foreign companies which would prejudice Switzerland's national dependence or neutrality.

Foreign oil companies have been authorized by various cantonal governments to prospect for oil deposits in the shale strata along the southern rim of the Jura Mountains.

CHICAGO (P)—There is no doubt about it, Francesca Lodge, wife of Gov. John Davis Lodge of Connecticut, wants "Eisenhower for President."

At the Republican National Convention she is a walking fashion plate in behalf of her favorite — from an "Ike" button trimming her pill-box style hat to her stockings embroidered in black at the ankle with the phrase "I Like Ike."

BONUS SYSTEM UP AGAIN AT BASEBALL MEET

By RALPH BERNSTEIN
PHILADELPHIA (P)—Baseball's controversial bonus system was being battled around by major league moguls today while rival all-star managers checked their hospital lists before announcing lineups for tomorrow's dream game at Shibe Park.

Bill Veck, live-wire owner of the rejuvenated St. Louis Browns, led a faction seeking to restore the bonus rule, which he claims will help the "weaker" clubs in both leagues.

Veck's group, probably including the Philadelphia Athletics, Washington Senators, Pittsburgh Pirates and Cincinnati Reds, would reinstate the rule providing that any player signing a bonus contract for more than $6,000 can be optioned for one year only and then must either be recalled by the parent club or made subject for waivers.

Stengel Has Problems
When the National and American League executives gather in joint session at their annual mid-summer meeting today, Veck is expected to request investigation of bonus activities and their effect on the game as a whole.

While club owners wrestled with their business problems, Casey Stengel, manager of the American League All-Stars, sought to unknot a few of his own. The junior circuit had been counting on its pitching aces to stifle the big bats of the favored National Leaguers in tomorrow's 19th annual all-star game.

But unless there are last minute recoveries, it looks like Stengel will have to go without little Bobby Shantz of the Philadelphia Athletics and Allie Reynolds of his own Yankees.

Shantz had to leave the mound at the start of the fifth inning of yesterday's first game with the Yankees because of a muscular pain in his chest. It is not known whether the 14-game winner will be available for action tomorrow.

Others On Injured List
As for Reynolds, he has a badly sprained wrist. Stengel also will be without George Kell, star third baseman, and probably Dom DiMaggio, brilliant outfielder, both of the Boston Red Sox. Kell is nursing a groin injury and DiMaggio a leg injury.

Here's how Casey has filled in:
1. Named Gil McDougald of the Yankees to sub for Kell.
2. Indicated he'll replace DiMaggio with Mickey Mantle of the Yankees if the Boston ace can't play.

Nationals Favored
3. Named Jim Turner of the Yankees as batting practice pitcher to replace Ted Lyons of Detroit.

Leo Durocher, manager of the 7½ to 5 favored National Leaguers, also was forced to make a switch. Elwin (Preacher) Roe of the Brooklyn Dodgers asked to be excused to visit his seriously ill father in Arkansas. Durocher acquiesced and immediately named Jim Hearn of his own Giants to replace Roe.

DEDICATE FIELD

local matters, "such as the development of this memorial field, should carry over into county, state and national affairs if we are to have as perfect a democracy as we should have."

Devotion Is Proven
Devotion to democracy, he added, "has been proved time and time again by our young men who have gone out into the carnage of war and have made the supreme sacrifice to maintain for us the freedoms we enjoy. To the young men, such as Edward Neiderer, who leave their homes on farms, in small communities and in large cities, to defend with their strength and youth the freedom of our country, we owe a determination that we shall defend democracy at home by making it work ever better."

The program opened with a march played by the New Oxford High School Band. Chuck Zink, Hanover, was master of ceremonies. The Rev. Dr. G. E. Bowersox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, McSherrystown, gave the invocation, and praised the community for "the great task accomplished here." Benjamin Hufnagel, president of the Brushtown Athletic Association, thanked all for their cooperation in developing the project and presented the field to the community. Charles Myers and Raymond Hufnagel accepted the field as "an asset to the community of Brushtown."

Father Raises Flag
Master of Ceremonies Zink presented a resume of the history of the Brushtown Athletic Association and also gave a biography of Edward Neiderer, in whose memory the field was dedicated. The flag was raised during the ceremony by the soldier's father, Milton P. Neiderer, Hanover R. 4. Magr. Patrick F. McGee, pastor of Annunciation Catholic Church, McSherrystown, gave the benediction. The program closed with the National Anthem played by the band.

Today's Talk
By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

There is no feeling quite so comfortable as the one you experience when you are just a little ahead! In other words, with something left over. It was Stevenson who said: "Earn a little, and spend a little — less."

By taking time to do an important thing you do it well, and have ambition and energy to start something new. It is so wise to keep something in reserve. Too many people use up all their strength each day, so that they start each new day with nothing left over. We feel better with a good balance in the bank.

It's that something left over that wins about everything in life. Even the race horse wins with what he had left over, after the total distance of near top exertion. Too many people have nothing left over at the end of a day, or upon the completion of a job, simply because they burn it all up in worry, anxiety or fear.

Burdens are for the day in which they are taken on. Not for the day after. We need the strength that we have left over each day to face new duties and enterprises of the tomorrow. With something saved and left over we gain in faith and confidence. We have more initiative. We are least discouraged.

People who treat their bodies kindly, take periods of relaxation, and think themselves out of difficult situations, have a world of strength left with which to face all emergencies. It's that something left over, and to spare, that enables so many to share with others, and so to become a continual inspiration to others.

In a commercial way men have made fortunes out of the "left-overs." By-products they call them. None of us should ever get used up — totally. We are enabled to face each new day with greater courage and confidence because we have something left over — something with which to begin new adventures!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Eating Companions."

GOP OPENS 25TH PRESIDENTIAL CONVENTION IN CHICAGO TODAY
By JACK BELL

CHICAGO (AP)—Republicans open their 25th presidential nominating convention today with leaders desperately trying to compromise one of the angriest disputes in the GOP's 96 years.

Behind the polite preliminaries and the gaudy trappings, a party-sundering fight boiled ominously between Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Sen. Robert A. Taft over contested delegates from Southern states which almost never vote Republican.

It could come to a showdown vote—possibly forecasting the ultimate winner of the nomination—in an opening session previously designed to clear away routine matters before tonight's keynote address by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Compromise Unlikely

Taft's backers seemed unlikely to accept a compromise proposal pushed strongly by Sen. William Knowland of California. It was designed to avoid a televised floor fight on the issue of whether contested delegates could vote on the seating of other disputed delegates.

Wrapped up in this is one of Eisenhower's strongest talking points in his bid for the nomination—the charge that if Taft is chosen it would be with the help of "stolen" votes from such states as Texas, Louisiana and Georgia.

Against this, Taft contended he had the backing of 537 telegraphically-pledged delegates. He said about 100 more are leaning his way. He said all were legally elected. A total of 604 is needed for the nomination.

Put It Up To Coleman

Although the Ohio senator's supporters obviously recognized the risks involved, they indicated after an early-morning meeting in the hotel suites of National Chairman Guy G. Gabrielson they are not in a mood for compromise.

Along with Arthur Summerfield, Michigan national committeeman, Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania and others, Knowland had drafted a compromise proposal and put it up to Tom Coleman of Wisconsin, Taft's convention floor manager.

Previously, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of Massachusetts, Eisenhower's national campaign manager, had announced Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington would move to amend the rules so that no contested delegate could vote on any seating dispute.

Blackout For 72

This would have blacked out 72 delegates in seven states. It would have kept credentials committee members from those seven states from voting in that committee on the contests.

Summerfield said Eisenhower personally had agreed to this compromise.

But David S. Ingalls, Taft's national campaign manager, said it was "a compromise which gives us nothing."

May Go To Floor

The committee's decisions on contests, which can be appealed to the whole convention, is regarded as important because no convention Latin prize was awarded to George J. Benner, of Gettysburg.

College Board: Prof. Harrison tendered his resignation to the Board of Trustees as Superintendent of the Preparatory Department and enters the service of the Board as Assistant Financial Agent. The Preparatory Department was reorganized by electing Prof. Bikle as Principal, Prof. Hart Gilbert, Vice Principal, and Mr. G. R. Freeman, of the class of 1876, Assistant Instructor. Prof. Bikle will continue his professional duties in the college.

Prof. Baugher, at the request of the Board, has accepted the position of Financial Secretary of the College for one year, to canvass for a fuller endowment and awaken a fuller interest to it.

tion ever has overruled its credentials group.

Unless Taft himself decided otherwise, the contest battle would go to the floor for further airing of the bitter charges which have come from both Eisenhower and Taft camps.

As the convention opened, the Associated Press tabulation of pledged, committed and conceded delegates showed:

Taft 534, Eisenhower 425, others 131 and uncommitted 116.

Taft Claims 537

This included contested delegates seated temporarily by the national committee. The final outcome of those contests might change the standings. And most of the 16 uncommitted would be found voting for Eisenhower or Taft on the first ballot.

Taft produced a stack of telegrams he said represented pledges from 537 delegates to go down the line for him. He said that was more than any man ever took into a Republican convention. He said 100 more delegates lean his way, and he voiced confidence that he can win the nomination.

ents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Little, Gettysburg R. 4, have returned home after vacationing for a few days in New York state.

The Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed Church, left Sunday to spend the week in New York City, where he is attending the ministers' conference at Union Theological Seminary.

To Hold Festival

At the Sunday morning worship service in Christ Reformed Church, the pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons, announced that the Sunday School will sponsor a strawberry festival for the public on Saturday, July 19. The affair will be held in the church picnic grove. Mervin K. Myers and Mervin L. Myers comprise the committee in charge of securing the entertainment. The committee on arrangements is composed of Mrs. Stanley R. Sell, chairman, Mrs. Erwin A. Rebert, Mrs. Clair R. Markle, Mrs. Lavere G. Mummert and Mrs. David L. Messenger.

The Rev. Mr. Koons also announced that the King's Daughters Sunday School class has also sponsored the purchase of a food freezer for the church parsonage. Individual donations have already been received toward this project and other contributions from members of the church will be appreciated. Donations may be given to Ralph I. Unger or Stanley R. Sell. The pastor and his family extended their thanks to the class and members of the congregation for installing the freezer. The board of trustees announced through its secretary, John M. Wisler, that Irvin C. Markle contributed $50 to the cemetery fund from the Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Markle estate.

For the morning worship service, Clyde L. Sterner, Donald H. Messenger, Mervin K. Myers and Richard E. Weikert served as ushers. The bulletin was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. H. Myers and family. The altar flowers and potted palms were a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Warner, who were united in marriage in the church sanctuary at 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Warner is the former Miss Joan M. Clapsaddle. A basket of flowers was given by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Roberts in memory of Mrs. Roberts' mother, Mrs. Uellia May Broadhead. A message was brought by the Rev. Mr. Koons, Fred A. Warner, church organist, was the accompanist for the congregational singing. At the conclusion of the service, the July issue of the Evangelist, the church publication, was distributed.

Announcement was made of an important meeting of the Women's Guild to be held immediately following the 10:30 o'clock worship

Out Of The Past
From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

Henry Clay Is Dead! The long looked for blow has fallen and the illustrious and venerated patriot and statesman, Henry Clay, is numbered with the dead. This melancholy event took place on Tuesday morning the 29th ult. He had long been prepared and his last moments were calm and quiet.

The announcement of his death immediately threw a gloom over Washington, and all the public offices and stores were closed, and the houses in the principal streets draped in mourning. Both houses of Congress immediately adjourned.

Henry Clay has just closed his 75th year. . . . He was elected to the Senate of the United States in 1806—and ever since his history is written in every important act which is identified with the interest and glory of his country. . . .

Town Meeting: The citizens of the Borough of Gettysburg assembled at the Court House on Thursday evening, July 1st, at 8 o'clock, to make arrangements for paying a suitable tribute to the memory and character of Henry Clay.

On motion—Robert G. Harper, Esq., was called to the chair. Abraham Arnold and W. W. Hamersley were elected Vice Presidents; and Samuel R. Russell and John Pickering were appointed Secretaries.

Feeling and eloquent addresses were delivered by Messrs. J. G. Reed, R. G. McCreary, D. McConaughy, Esq., and Professor Stover. Committee on arrangements: D. McConaughy, Esq., Dr. J. L. Hill, Hon. J. B. Danner, R. G. McCreary, Esq., Col. J. D. Paxton, Hon. Moses M'Clean, Abraham Arnold, Thomas Warren, Esq., George Swope, Professor M. L. Stover, Wm. W. Paxton, Esq., A. B. Kurtz, Esq. . . .

Business was suspended in this Borough on Monday. There was no general celebration of the day, but a number of private parties picnicked in the country. The largest, we believe, was on the banks of Marsh-creek, near Col. Cobean's, who with the liberality and cleverness he has always showed, had every arrangement made for their comfortable reception. The day passed delightfully.

Just Folks
THE OLD CAMPAIGNS

In the old days our grandfathers used to parade And carry the banners with slogans they'd made. No matter the distance to meetings, they walked To hear and to cheer when their candidates talked.

The cause was important to both parties' men. But they'd no television or radio then.

They were eager to learn and to hear and to see. No effort to serve them too great seemed to be. But now, when the candidates take to the air, Too many at ease settle down in a chair.

No more the parade to the old meeting hall. The speeches now come from a studio small.

I wouldn't go back, but throughout the campaign That old-fashioned spirit I'd like to regain; That "get up and go" through fine weather or bad To work for the cause which our grandfathers had; That deep love of country which urged them to fight And defend to the last what they thought to be right.

Compromise Unlikely

Taft's backers seemed unlikely to accept a compromise proposal pushed strongly by Sen. William Knowland of California. It was designed to avoid a televised floor fight on the issue of whether contested delegates could vote on the seating of other disputed delegates.

Wrapped up in this is one of Eisenhower's strongest talking points in his bid for the nomination—the charge that if Taft is chosen it would be with the help of "stolen" votes from such states as Texas, Louisiana and Georgia.

Against this, Taft contended he had the backing of 537 telegraphically-pledged delegates. He said about 100 more are leaning his way. He said all were legally elected. A total of 604 is needed for the nomination.

Put It Up To Coleman

Although the Ohio senator's supporters obviously recognized the risks involved, they indicated after an early-morning meeting in the hotel suites of National Chairman Guy G. Gabrielson they are not in a mood for compromise.

Along with Arthur Summerfield, Michigan national committeeman, Gov. John S. Fine of Pennsylvania and others, Knowland had drafted a compromise proposal and put it up to Tom Coleman of Wisconsin, Taft's convention floor manager.

Previously, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of Massachusetts, Eisenhower's national campaign manager, had announced Gov. Arthur B. Langlie of Washington would move to amend the rules so that no contested delegate could vote on any seating dispute.

Blackout For 72

This would have blacked out 72 delegates in seven states. It would have kept credentials committee members from those seven states from voting in that committee on the contests.

Summerfield said Eisenhower personally had agreed to this compromise.

But David S. Ingalls, Taft's national campaign manager, said it was "a compromise which gives us nothing."

May Go To Floor

The committee's decisions on contests, which can be appealed to the whole convention, is regarded as important because no convention Latin prize was awarded to George J. Benner, of Gettysburg.

College Board: Prof. Harrison tendered his resignation to the Board of Trustees as Superintendent of the Preparatory Department and enters the service of the Board as Assistant Financial Agent. The Preparatory Department was reorganized by electing Prof. Bikle as Principal, Prof. Hart Gilbert, Vice Principal, and Mr. G. R. Freeman, of the class of 1876, Assistant Instructor. Prof. Bikle will continue his professional duties in the college.

Prof. Baugher, at the request of the Board, has accepted the position of Financial Secretary of the College for one year, to canvass for a fuller endowment and awaken a fuller interest to it.

PARTY MARKS ANNIVERSARY

A lawn party was held on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Stover, E. King St., in observance of their 40th wedding anniversary. The affair was arranged by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dean Stover, who reside in half of the Stover home. A three-tier wedding cake formed the centerpiece of the refreshment table and a patriotic color scheme was carried out in the decorations. Guests at the celebration in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Stover and Mr. and Mrs. H. Dean Stover and son, Alfred, were Mr. and Mrs. Maus LeFevre, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph LeFevre and daughter, Patricia; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Berger and daughters, Gail and Cynthia, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stover and son, Edwin, New Oxford; the Rev. and Mrs. James Morcraft and son, William, Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stultz and children, Jack and Karen, Mrs. Carrie Stultz and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Stover, all of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther W. Ritter and children, Mary, Carl and Martha, E. King St., and Mr. Ritter's mother, Mrs. Ernest Ritter, Taneytown, have returned home after visiting for several days with the Rev. and Mrs. John C. Brumbach and daughter, Audrey, Bangor, and spending some time in New York City where they visited points of interest. Martha Ritter accompanied her parents home after spending a week with the Brumbachs.

Birth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hall, State College, announce the birth of a son, Daniel Bruce, Wednesday at the Bellfonte Hospital. Hall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Hall, N. Queen St., and Mrs. Hall, the former Ruth Myers, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Myers, near town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stultz and children, Jack and Karen, York, visited during the holiday week end with the former's mother, Mrs. Carrie Stultz, and son, Richard, N. Queen St.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Our obituary columns announce the death of Hannah Johnson, colored, in this place, on Sunday. She claims to have been 11 years of age when the Revolutionary war began, and if so, she must have been 112 years old at her death.

St. Francis Xavier's church of this place, under the pastoral charge of Rev. J. A. Boil, intend starting a parochial school. The school building will be erected on the lot in rear of the pastoral residence on High street. Work on it has already begun, and it will be completed this fall.

The Fourth: The "4" passed very quietly in Gettysburg. During the night and up to eight o'clock in the morning, there was a noisy explosion of fire-crackers, pistols, etc., but by 9 o'clock the town was deserted, numerous parties of pic-nickers seeking the woods to spend the day. Until the return of these parties in the evening, the town was quiet as on a well observed Sabbath.

A twelve year old Gettysburg boy, who had an opportunity to spend the 4th in New Jersey, thus writes a boy's impression of our fire-cracker ordinance:

"I have just seen that we dare not have any 4th of July in Gettysburg any more. I think we had better pull up stakes and go some place where they have officers who don't forget when they were boys. We dare not play ball, roll hoops, play fox, and last, but not least, dare not have any 4th of July. They all agree with me here."

Married: Bricker-Albert.—On the 1st inst., by Rev. W. F. Colliflower, Mr. Daniel W. Bricker to Miss Malinda E. Albert, both from near Five Points, in this county.

Fisher-Rommel.—In Philadelphia, on the 5th inst., by Rev. Mr. Cronch, Mr. Alfred F. Fisher, of Philadelphia, to Miss Annie G. Remmel, daughter of Jacob Remmel, of Gettysburg.

Schriver-Myers.—On the 19th ult., by Rev. D. Sell, Mr. J. H. Schriver, of York county, to Miss Ella Myers, of Reading township, Adams county.

Commencement Items: College Alumni Association—On Wednesday night, President Tressler, of Carthage College, Illinois, delivered the annual address before the Alumni Association of the College. . . . A delicate regard for the sentiment of his Alma Mater, and his special relation to her, forbade the speaker from entering upon that novel feature of progress known as the co-education of the sexes. Hon. Edward McPherson presided over the annual meeting of the Alumni Association.

Commencement Day: A heavy rain fell during Wednesday night, continuing on Thursday morning. Notwithstanding the large church was filled at an early hour, betokening a brilliant commencement—ladies in gala dress, with floral offerings of every imaginable shape ready to be sent up to the young men as each in turn left the stage.

There were 24 graduates. We note four of them: Philanthropy in War, W. L. Seabrook, Westminster; Burgoyne's Surrender, J. Blon Scott, Gettysburg; The Two Chancellors, J. H. Crist, New Bloomfield; Valedictory, H. B. Wile, Philadelphia.

BARBERRY BUSH WAS COSTLY TO YORK FARMERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A single barberry bush has cost York County farmers thousands of dollars in black stem rust damage to wheat crops, the State Agriculture Department reports.

The department said the offending bush released millions of spores to infect wheat fields as distant as 12 miles away on the edge of the city of York.

Some 50 square miles are affected, the department's chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, Dr. Thomas L. Guyton said.

Found Near East Berlin
The bush, about six feet high, was located on a farm about three miles north of East Berlin and seven miles east of York Springs.

Several years ago a barberry eradication campaign was conducted in the county but that one bush apparently was overlooked and now is surrounded by other smaller plants.

A $30,000 appropriation was made by the 1951 state legislature to eradicate barberry. It can be used only in counties which meet state funds on a matching basis.

Film Business In Italy Is Booming

ROME (AP)—"Hollywood-on-the-Tiber" is turning out a record number of motion pictures this year.

By April the Italian film industry had finished 30 full-length pictures. Another 18 were before the cameras. A record number of high-budget films intended for the export market are included.

The trend is away from importing Hollywood players this year. French, British and Italian actors are replacing the more expensive American actors.

Fast Growing Vegetables Needed For Fall Harvest

When sowing in midsummer vegetables for fall and winter harvest—the best of the year—it is important to select varieties which will mature in time to escape being frozen.

Quickest maturing vegetables is the early radish which matures in 20 days; and slowest are winter onions which require 115 days.

Between these extremes are varieties which may take 40, 60 or 80 days to reach the size and quality which best fits them for table use.

Seed catalogues usually give the maturity date for each variety listed. From your local weather bureau you can ascertain the average date of the first killing frost in your vicinity. Compare these two, and you can easily avoid crops which have no chance to develop fully before winter.

There are two salad crops which are at their best in the fall—endive and Chinese cabbage. Chinese cabbage which matures in 90 days is difficult to grow in the summer because it runs to seed, but in the short days of autumn, it makes beautiful, elongated heads of crisp leaves having a suggestion of cabbage flavor which are delicious cooked or raw.

Vegetable crops which should not be sown in June include peas, early radishes, lettuce and spinach. All these require cool weather, and you may sow very early kinds in August, so they will mature in the autumn.

Quick maturing crops include snap beans, beets, carrots, endive, lettuce, kohlrabi, turnips, spinach, peas and radishes. The later you sow, the "earlier" should be the variety you sow.

Several vegetables can be left in the garden late into the winter, or all winter long, and harvested as needed, to be thawed out and served.

Kale will provide the table with greens all winter long. Brussels sprouts stands freezing and thaw-ling in the early winter, and frequently remains in good condition until Christmas. Parsnips which freezing makes sweeter, and satisfy the vegetable oyster, can be dug up all winter, or dug in the fall, placed in paper bags, one serving to the bag, and stored in a box outdoors where they will freeze. A bag can be taken in the kitchen and thawed out when wanted.

Slow growing vegetables, which need only to be sown once in order to give an all season harvest, enjoy the cool days and more plentiful rainfall of autumn as much as the early types.

Swiss chard should be kept young by cutting off all leaves more than 10 inches long, and encouraging new growth, which will be more tender. New Zealand spinach can be harvested until freezing weather. Peppers and egg plant produce abundantly in the fall, and the late maturing tomatoes and sweet corn combine top quality with the heaviest yield of the season.

Truly, the autumn harvest is the finest of the year!

SUMMER POULTRY NOTES

Among all who share responsibilities in handling eggs, from the laying nest to the consumer's breakfast table, no one profits more from proper care of eggs than does the poultry owner. It is his investment that is at stake. It is he who controls egg quality during the most important stage—feeding the layer to storage after gathering. Of course, hot weather brings the greatest perils of the year to egg producers.

Only infertile eggs—those laid by hens without access to male birds—are fit for human consumption. Infertile eggs do not lose their edible qualities nearly as soon as do fertile eggs. In fact, fertile eggs are suitable only for hatching.

Normally a hen lays a good egg. True, egg quality may be improved by selecting better bred layers which lay eggs that weigh 14 ounces or more to the dozen, by proper feeding, and particularly by keeping eggs clean and protecting their internal goodness.

Well over 99 per cent of eggs are clean until they come in contact with the nest. Too much emphasis is seldom placed on the importance of clean nests. This is better understood when it is known that eggs should never be washed.

One roomy, clean nest for every five layers is another poultry house rule worth following.

Eggs should be gathered at least three times a day, especially in summer—10 o'clock in the forenoon, and 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon. This practice not only reduces the number of dirty eggs but it also prevents lowered quality from the body heat of successive layers plus the summer temperature of the poultry house.

Careful buffing of soiled egg shells with fine emery cloth is often the best way to remove foreign matter. Steel wool may be used if it is very fine and is employed so the shell is not scratched. But do not wash soiled eggs.

On the point of producing only infertile eggs, small flock owners warrant repetition of the truth that absence of male birds in no manner influences the number of eggs a hen lays during the season.

Immediately after eggs are gathered they should be stored in a fairly moist, cool room, preferably in a temperature range of 40 to 55 degrees F. Temperatures below 40 degrees may prove harmful later when eggs encounter higher levels in transportation.

Broody hens are a distinct liability to the laying flock. Not only does each broody hen mean a potential layer actually on a sit-down strike yet still visiting the feed bin, but they disrupt the general flock peace by their gruffness. Separate them at once to individual "broody coops" where free ventilation and normal feeding and watering convince the wrong-doer that she has no business in wanting to raise a family.

Poor layers should be culled out all summer. These usually begin to demonstrate their lack of merit by decreasing egg production early, by broodiness and other evidences. The editor will be glad to furnish interested readers free copies of our poultry culling guide on request. Merely enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Blames Home, School For AWO Soldiers

BOALSBURG, Pa. (AP)—The number of soldiers going absent without leave can be traced in part to a lack of discipline in homes and schools, the Society of the 28th Division was told yesterday.

Speaking at the society's annual memorial services, Maj. Gen. Laurence Keiser, commander of the Fifth Division stationed at Indian-ton Gap, said he was disturbed by the large number of AWOL soldiers.

He blamed the condition on "a lack of disciplinary training in homes and schools."

Gen. Keiser also said that Americans "are not in proper physical shape for fighting wars," adding that about one-third of those called in the draft are not suitable for army service.

More than five hundred veterans attended the services honoring the division's dead in both world wars.

There are Miles that Make You Happy

YOU'LL discover a lot that you like in this neat, fleet and nimble traveler the first mile you drive it.

Such things as cushions broad and deep—six-passenger room unsurpassed by any car in America—fabrics rich, soft, harmonious.

As you take it through traffic—breast a hill or two—try it out on back roads—you'll find that you handle Dynaflo Drive* as if you had always used it—your ride is serenely level—and a great tide of power comes surging up as you need it.

This, you will say, is very Super indeed.

But no one-time sample can tell you the deep-down enduring thrill that is yours when you own this great middle series Buick.

How easy it is to park in round-town driving, especially if you have Power Steering.†

How relaxed you and the family will feel at the end of a long day's vacation jaunt—with Dynaflo Drive to let you drive at ease on the open road, without the tenseness of clutch-pushing in traffic—plus a Million Dollar Ride to protect the comfort of the family.

That ride is something to talk about. More than a dozen selected engineering features control roll and wander on curves—snub dip and sway before they get past the frame—carry you over all kinds of roads with lullaby smoothness.

And that Fireball 8 Engine—man, what a docile thunderbolt you'll find it to be! Here's a high-compression valve-in-head that really wrings miles from a gallon of gas.

In other words, all the miles you travel in this Buick are going to make you gladder and gladder that you bought it—for comfort, for fun, for thrill and for thrift.

What are you waiting for? Come in and get your sample today.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Now available on Super as well as Roadmaster—optional at extra cost.

27 DIE IN P.A. OVER WEEK-END; TRAFFIC TOLL 18

By The Associated Press
Accidents during the Fourth of July weekend brought death to 27 persons in Pennsylvania with 18 of the total dying along the highways of the state.
(Adams County accounted for two of the deaths, both in traffic accidents.)
The traffic toll was the second highest in the nation as reported by the Associated Press nationwide survey. Only California, with 28 dead on the highways, had a higher traffic toll than Pennsylvania as the final count up to last midnight came in.
Accidental deaths beginning at 6 p. m. Thursday, July 3 (local time) until last midnight were recorded. In the Keystone State six persons—five men and a nine-year-old girl—drowned over the holiday while three others were killed in miscellaneous-type accidents. No one was reported killed by fireworks in the state.

Five In One Crash
A single fatal accident occurred along the more than 340 miles of the cross state Pennsylvania turnpike. That mishap, however, accounted for five of the dead. An 18-year-old boy, his father and mother and two soldiers, all from Ohio, died in a two-car crash near Donegal, early the morning of the Fourth.
The only other auto accident taking more than one life occurred Saturday, near Quakertown, when John A. Roland, 35, Hatfield, and Arthur E. Fulton, 41, Lansdale, were killed as their car ran off the road and crashed into a large rock.
The state holiday total, which included persons ranging from two to 68, was heaviest on the Fourth, itself, when 13 died. Three were killed in the last six hours of Thursday, six Saturday and five more yesterday (Sunday.)

3 Drown Near York
Of the six drownings, three were reported near York. The others were near McKeesport, in Lycoming creek, and near Altoona.
The three victims in the miscellaneous-cause column were Ira VanBuskirk, 39, of Wind Gap, Pa., who died yesterday in a pond near Easton; Andy Mezeppa, 39, Millsboro; and Edward Valecka, 37, Millvale. VanBuskirk's death was believed due to either drowning or a heart attack by authorities. Valecka died Friday of a heart attack while swimming and Mezeppa was shot Friday while hunting.
Other deaths yesterday: Mrs. Katherine Artz, 53, Williamstown, killed in a two-car crash near Lykens, Dauphin County; Mrs. Evelyn May Solomon, 37, New Berlin, killed in a two-car crash near Mifflinburg; Leroy Adkins, 55, Homestead, whose car was hit by a train near Washington; Raymond Adipotti, 13, Wilmerding, drowned near McKeesport; and George Washington Clark, Jr., 46, of York, drowned in a quarry near his home.

Highlights Of Gettysburg Firemen's Parade And Celebration

The top picture is the Rotary Club's first prize winner in the Class B float division in the Fourth of July parade with Miss Virginia Fox the young lady in front of the Rotary wheel. Below, in order, are the Lions Club float, which won second prize in Class B, and the YWCA float, with a group depicting the various activities of the "Y". Lower photo, left, shows the head of the parade column approaching Lincoln Square on Chambersburg St., with Major William M. Lipsey, Gettysburg College P of MST, in the lead. He was acting grand marshal. Center picture shows "Sport" Matthews and his aerial act which was a feature of the firemen's festival twice nightly at the Recreation Park. (Photos by Lane Studio)

The Gettysburg Camp of the Sons of Union Veterans again took first place in the Fourth of July parade for floats with an historic background or theme. Picture at top shows the SUV interpretation of the battle for Culp's Hill. Below, the float entered by the Women of the Moose, which won second prize in the same division. Miss Martha Strausbaugh was Uncle Sam; Mrs. Bessie Kapp, Martha Washington, and left, Mrs. Loretta Johnson, senior regent, and Mrs. Marie Keller, past senior regent. Next, below, the third prize float of the Adams County Council, Girl Scouts, a Jennie Wade setting. Those in the picture are, Jennie Wade, left, Miss Elizabeth Heldt, and at right, her mother, depicted by Miss Donna Reel. Lower right picture shows the E.E. invited to place their names on the menu bulletin. Those desiring to do so may make a contribution of $2 to the committee in charge. The project is for the benefit of the church building fund. The committee to arrange the bulletin is composed of John N. Sell, chairman, Ralph I. Unger, treasurer, Joseph T. Bollinger, David L. Messinger, Stanley R. Sell, Gerald W. Sterner, John R. Roberts, Lavere G. Mummert, Clair R. Markle, Ivan C. Dutterer, John D. Reindollar, Lewis E. Blair and Harold E. Shoemaker.

Make Camping Plans
Instruction sheets containing information about the big camp at Natural Dam for members of Boy Scout Troop No. 84 will be distributed at the weekly meeting of the scouts on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the basement of the Littlestown State Bank. The program will be discussed and any questions relative to the program will be answered. The Natural Dam camp will be held from July 12 to 19 inclusive. The cost for participation, including insurance, will be $5, the same as last year. Sunday School and church services will be conducted as usual and visitors' day will be held on Thursday. More details concerning the schedule will be announced later.

The Group B Missionary Society of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold its July meeting on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of Ruth and Louise Bucher, near town. A picnic lunch will be enjoyed and each member is requested to bring rolls and doggies. Following the lunch, the topic discussion will take place with Phyllis Dickinson as the leader.

A club assembly program will be held at the weekly meeting of the Littlestown Rotary Club on Tuesday evening at 6:15 o'clock in Schottie's Hotel. The committees and program for the coming Rotary year will be announced.
Mrs. Clinton O. Sentz, West King St., received the Appreciation Day award at the program on Saturday evening. Mrs. Sentz received ten percent of the total jackpot which amounted to $44. At the program, Marvin F. Breighner, president of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce, announced that next Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, the William P. Myers Band from Westminster will present a concert for the public at the intersection of South Queen and Boyer Sts.
The members of Brownie Girl Scout Troop No. 16 will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the engine house and from there the group will be transported to the home of the troop leader, Mrs. John C. Forry, Littlestown R. D.

THOROUGHBREDS FOR TURKS
BAGDAD, Iraq (AP) — The Iraq government has agreed to export 600 thoroughbred horses for use by the Turkish army, the newspaper Lewa Al Istiklal reported.

he had transferred their cases from juvenile court to open court "because there is too much of this burglarizing of country stores and service stations."

Back $4,220 On Support
Peter O. Warrenfeltz, Gettysburg R. 2, was sent to jail on contempt of court for failure to keep up his support payments. He was told that he could be released from jail when he complied with the support order.

John C. Huston, Hanover, was given a suspended sentence and ordered to pay $150 for the use of the county and the costs on a charge of failing to stop at the scene of an accident.

James H. Wiser, Sr., Baltimore, who was $4,220 in arrears on a support order was found in contempt of court and released on $1,000 bail to appear again on November 14. He was ordered to make his payments by that time. He was given credit on the $4,220 "bill" for $1,280 he had paid his wife under a Maryland support order over the last two years.

Hear Witnesses
Dr. Bruce N. Wolff, surgeon at the Warner hospital, and Jane Louise Witherow, Gettysburg R. 1, appeared on the stand as witnesses in a hearing on a compromise settlement of an action in trespass brought by Miss Witherow and her parents, J. Burton and Helen E. Witherow against Myles E. Starnier, Aspers.

Miss Witherow was a passenger in a car driven by Starnier when it was in an accident near Dillsburg May 20, 1951. The compromise called for paying Miss Witherow $250 medical costs, $450 for loss of wages and $600 for pain and suffering. The court said it would hand down an opinion later on the proposed compromise.
Hearings in various cases, including a request for parole on the part of P. J. Buntag, Pittsburgh sports promoter serving 60 days in the county jail on a false pretense charge, were being held by the court this afternoon.

Eagles' Auxiliary Told Of Convention

A report on the recent state convention was presented Thursday evening by Ethel Bucher, delegate from the local group, at the regular meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Eagles held at the Eagles home, Chambersburg St.
Other delegates from the local auxiliary to the two-day convention of Eagles' auxiliaries held at Reading July 1 and 2 were Rose Anzengruber and Habel Harmon.
A new member was voted into the auxiliary. Prizes were awarded to Florence Yingst and Martha Strausbaugh, Rose Anzengruber, the president, presided at the meeting. The next regular meeting of the group will be held July 17 at the Eagles home, Chambersburg St.

At High Water Mark

What is hoped will become a yearly custom was begun last Thursday afternoon by the Gettysburg Camp of the Sons of Union Veterans when a guard was posted at the High Water Mark during the period from 3:30 to 4:20 o'clock when Pickett's forces made their assault on the Union Lions at that point. Richard L. Walter and Raymond Creager are shown in Civil War uniform carrying muskets of the battle period as they carried out the period of "sentry-go" to commemorate the 89th anniversary of the repulse of Pickett's attack. ALLIED RAIDERS ARE DRIVEN BACK

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—A large Allied raiding party, supported by tanks and flame throwers, was beaten back early today by Chinese entrenched in log pillboxes two miles east of the Panmunjon truce talks site.
Associated Press Correspondent Sam Summerlin at the Western Front reported the U. N. infantrymen jumped off against three Red outposts at 10 p. m. under a brilliant moonlight sky.
Summerlin said the raiders were pinned down by Communist mortar shells and grenades at the first outpost.
On the flanks of the attack, flame-throwing tanks and infantry hit Red positions to prevent Communist reinforcements from moving up. A few hours after midnight, Allied reinforcements rushed in and helped the embattled doughboys withdraw.
At dawn Allied warplanes pounded the Red outposts while the tired infantrymen and tankers fell back.

4-H Club News

The Mummasburg 4-H Club met last Thursday at the home of Lois and Nancy Musselman. Due to insufficient time Miss Mary Jane Mickey postponed a discussion on table manners until the next meeting Friday, July 18, at 9 a. m. at the Musselman home.

GOP PLATFORM WRITERS BUSY

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
CHICAGO (AP) — Republican platform builders neared the end of a long struggle today to complete a campaign structure mostly of triangular planks.
One side bid for voter support in the November general election. On its face was each major issue—foreign policy, labor, civil rights, corruption, farm supports and other key questions.
The other two sides generally appeared shaped and polished to mirror the views of either Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower or Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.
They are the top contenders in the bitter battle for the Republican presidential nomination. The battle quickens today with the opening of the GOP convention.
Sen. Eugene D. Millikin of Colorado, Platform Committee chairman, continued to push a special drafting staff day and night behind closed doors.
Members of the committee disclosed that only a civil rights plank needed to be hammered into position.
numerous meetings throughout the year.
"With the successful completion of our campaign this year, we hope to expand our services to cancer patients to include free dressing, free sedatives and transportation for medically indigent patients, free loan closet service of sick-room supplies and home visiting service. Only 10 percent of our funds are used for administration and campaign expense."

ace L. Bender, secretary of the Eagles, who was in charge of arranging meals for the drum corps and added his tribute to the lodge of the VFW and the American Legion posts, who assisted, he said.
The drum corps became a "band" for the concert numbers which occupied the first part of the program, playing several diversified numbers, under the direction of Staff Sgt. Sigvald H. Norman.
One number, "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home Again," was dedicated to General Weikert, and another to the Eagles, Moose and Elks lodges. The glee club, composed of 22 members of the drum corps, presented three numbers, "Mood Indigo," the Cornell Alma Mater, "Cayuga's Waters," and "Kentucky Babe." The bagpipe section then thrilled the crowds with Scottish Highland music.
Stage Field Drill
The thanks of the fire company and others was expressed by Burgess Weaver to Prof. Guile W. LeFever, principal of the high school, for use of the athletic field, and the formal part of the program was concluded with the benediction by the Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church.
The 61 members of the drum corps then staged a field drill and exhibition of nearly a half hour which featured tributes to the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Corps. Their precision marching and drilling, as well as the stellar quality of their music, drew round after round of applause.

CONGRESSIONAL ADJOURNMENT PLANS KILLED

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 82nd Congress, its adjournment plans wrecked Saturday by a deadlock over two money bills, met again today.

However, it will mainly mark time until next Monday, when absent members return to clean up the two jobs still to be done.

The dash toward a planned final adjournment stalled to a stop as the sun peeked over the horizon yesterday morning. All except two appropriation bills had been passed but on these the Senate and House deadlocked.

Mark Time For Week

Most of the Republican members have now left for the party's national convention in Chicago and many Democrats have gone home.

Adjournment itself was off at least until next week, the week between the party conventions. Until then, nothing of importance will be transacted. House Democrats and Republicans agreed on this in the small hours Sunday morning.

Administration plans to bring Congress to a close Saturday night collapsed chiefly because the House had written into a 10-billion-dollar supplemental appropriation bill a curb on the use of funds for an expansion of the atomic weapons program.

Rider Caused Deadlock

The measure carries two billion dollars for the atomic program, $6,031,947,750 for foreign military and economic aid, and $2,140,000,000 for military bases and other projects around the world.

In a last-ditch appeal against the House rider, President Truman wrote Vice President Barkley and House Speaker Rayburn that it would cripple atomic production and imperil national security.

The Senate refused to accept the rider. The House finally agreed to modify it somewhat but balked at throwing it overboard.

Another Dispute

The other dispute that upset adjournment plans flared over a compromise $584,061,000 bill to finance rivers and harbors and flood control projects.

Dropped out of the measure was four million dollars for the Hartwell dam in South Carolina and Georgia. Sen. Maybank (D-SC) roared that the bill was doing so to pass without this item in it.

The upshot was that the Senate sent the bill back to conference again in hopes of working out a settlement.

Made Some Strides

With this and the atomic spending controversy on his hands, Democratic Leader McFarland of Arizona despaired at last and moved the Senate recess until today. It quit at 4:10 a. m. and the House shortly followed suit.

Giant strides toward adjournment, including the passage of a $46,600,000,000 defense appropriation bill, had been taken in the session that began at noon Saturday before the legislators bogged down in controversy.

MEXICAN WRITER DIES

MEXICO CITY, AP—Jose Ruben Romero, 52, one of Mexico's best known writers, died unexpectedly of a heart attack.

Romero held diplomatic posts in Spain, Brazil and Cuba and later served as rector of the University of Michoacan.

It has been estimated that people with grade school educations know from 25,000 to 35,000 words, with many college students knowing almost 60,000.

CONVICT SHOT IN NEW MICHIGAN PRISON RIOTING

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—One convict was shot as 140-odd wild and rioting prisoners grabbed two guards as hostages, threatening them with death, and wrecked their cell block at Southern Michigan Prison last night.

It was in this same prison, the world's largest, that a bloody mutiny and riot in April, brought death to one convict, wounds to eight others and close to a million dollars worth of damage. The leaders of the new outbreak were among those being disciplined by solitary confinement for their participation in the April rioting.

Hostages Unharmed

Both hostage guards were freed unharmed after state police troopers had been withdrawn from the cell block. The rioters shouted they'd throw them (guards) off a fifth story cellblock balcony to a concrete floor below if they were not.

In their first move into the cellblock of shouting, cursing, knife and club wielding convicts, the troopers fired an estimated five to ten shotgun blasts.

Convict Carl Bradford, 24, a Detroit negro, serving one to four years for larceny from a building, fell wounded.

The new rioting stemmed from inmate complaints that prisoners were held on two lower floors of cellblock nine since April 21, without dining room, yard exercising or visitor privileges.

The rioting which lasted two hours and 35-minutes, climaxed disturbances throughout Cellblock Nine during the day. Finally, some convicts on the first two floors, beat their bars loose at the bottom and pried them back with chairs or other furniture to make openings.

They grabbed guard Sgt. Burt Myron, 57, and guard William Blair, 34. They rushed them up four flights and held them there until Myron was sent down to convey the prisoners' demands.

Pedestrians Like New Traffic Idea

DENVER (AP) — Four of five citizens favor the new "walk-in-any-direction" traffic lights, a newspaper survey shows.

Under the system pedestrians can walk in any direction after motorists have had a turn at each cross street. The plan is confined to downtown Denver.

Sixty-nine per cent of visitors from other parts of the state who were polled also favored the innovation.

LOOK TO MURRAY FOR NEW MOVE

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The nation looked to CIO United Steelworkers President Philip Murray today for some tipoff on the union's next move in the economy-shattering steel strike now going into its sixth week.

The silvery-haired labor leader invades the territory of his most bitter opponent in the steel dispute to address a huge rally of steelworkers at nearby Duquesne.

Most of the 6,000 steelworker-residents of that small milltown are employed by U. S. Steel Corp., biggest producer in the country and traditional pace-setter for the industry.

The rally is the first in the Pittsburgh area—steel center of the world—since Murray called out 650,000 union members in the basic steel industry June 2.

Steelworkers look for their leader to explain at length the union's charges that the six largest steel producers have refused to bargain in good faith.

California's First Oil Location Marked

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A plaque commemorating the discovery of oil in the rich Signal Hill district was unveiled recently by members of Petroleum Pioneers, Inc.

The group, men with more than 30 years service in the oil industry, have started a campaign to mark locations of important petroleum discoveries in this state.

The first well on Signal Hill began flowing in 1921 and since then the district has become one of the richest oil communities in the world, members said.

The PEOPLE'S CHOICE

for LOOKS

for POWER

for PRICE

YOU CAN PAY MORE BUT YOU CAN'T BUY BETTER

From coast to coast folks are calling the '52 Ford Victoria America's "best-dressed" car! Its new curved one-piece windshield is a "first" in its field. Ford's choice of new body, upholstery and color combinations is the widest in low-priced car history!

The young of heart choose Ford's Crestline Sunliner. With its new 110 high-compression V-8 horsepower, you get the most power ever offered in the low-price field. And take your pick of Fordomatic Drive, Overdrive or Conventional Drive.

Another favorite son is the all-new Ford Ranch Wagon—the lowest-priced full-size station wagon. And like all '52 Fords, it has Automatic Ride Control . . . far easier steering. "Test Drive" your favorite new Ford. You'll agree no car gives you so much style, so much power and so much comfort for the money.

Fordomatic, Overdrive and white sidewall tires optional at extra cost. Equipment, accessories and trim subject to change without notice.
